THE FAS PUBLICATION FUND FOR TENURE-TRACK FACULTY

The FAS Tenure-Track Faculty Publication Fund is intended to provide aid to assistant and associate professors in the Faculty of Arts and Sciences seeking to find supplemental research funds to assist with costs related to scholarly publications, broadly defined. These needs might, for example, include expenses associated with research assistance, publication subsidies, copying, word processing, obtaining translations or illustrations, or creating footnotes or indices.

ELIGIBILITY:
FAS Assistant and Associate Professors are eligible.

WHEN TO APPLY:
Rolling application.

WHERE TO APPLY:
Requests should be submitted to the appropriate assistant dean for your division in the Office for Faculty Affairs.

AWARD LEVELS:
Reimbursement of up to $5,000 is available per faculty member over the course of his or her appointment as a tenure-track member of the FAS. Eligible members of the FAS may submit more than one request and receive more than one grant up to the total award amount of $5,000. Grants awarded remain available for the term of the tenure-track appointment or up to two years in the case of promotion to tenure. This funding is intended to be supplementary; other means of support, including appropriate departmental, center, or research funds, should be applied for first.

APPLICATION FOR THE FAS TENURE-TRACK FACULTY PUBLICATION FUND

Name: Harvard ID#:

Title:

Department:

University Address:

Telephone Number:

Email Address:

Title of Project:

Description of Project:

Description of Publication Need:

Detailed Budget for Publication Need (please be specific about how each line item relates to the project):

Are any other applications pending or have they been received for support of this same publication need from other internal Harvard sources or from external funds?   If so, please list such source(s).   If not, please explain why no such applications have been submitted.

Are there funds available from start-up funds or research funds available for this publication need? Please explain in detail.

Signature   Date